is second to none. Mr. Kane, as the Marquis, is beyond compare, and his several solos were vociferously cheered. Mr. Doran, as G-pard, was not behind in his excellent rendering of the part in which he appeared. Mr. Peko as Grem-heaux is the possessor of a good flexible tenor voice, and as with the rest of the Company, appeared to good advantage. Miss Bishop was charming as Germaine. The costumes are elegant and proper to the requirements of the opera.—Chicago Times.

AS FROM THE DEAD.

Three Miners Rescued at Nanticoke.

NANTICOKE, PA., Feb. 10th.—Three men returned to earth this morning as from the grave. They are John W. Riner, Willam Grogle and Michael Sheldons, miners in the employ of the Saquehanna coal company.

Wednesday last these men with others, were working in No. 3 colliery of the old Harvey workings, about a mile from this city. They were driving the dip from main tunnel to the cross head.

In doing this they came near the old working which had been abandoned and which was used as a reservoir for holding mine drainage. They then inspected and in a moment a pick was crashed through the old board barricade and the water was let loose. It came in a tremendous wave, filling the gangway full, and swept the men before it. When the men reached the surface they found that three of their companions were missing. Rescue parties at once began to search for them in the hope that they would be found in some of the dry tunnels of the mine, and have worked day and night since. This morning they were taken out alive, but very weak.
